

DRAFT INTENDED PROGRAM (06 OCT 2023)

8th Nov 23 (Meeting opportunity during ISMS business meetings slot, Venue: DGI Byen)

Time	What	Where	Whom	Remarks
1245 1415	Informal meeting for all interested in military design thinking and practice. We will talk about national and international experiences, the AOD network, and plan for future practice and research activities.	ISMS venue (DGI byen) Room TBD	Action: TH-HT-PBB-AS Participants: All interested	The business meeting is preceding the military design symposium on Thursday, Nov. 9th, where military designers and the design-friendly will explore, share, and discuss design experiences and way ahead

9th Nov 23 (Symposium on military design thinking, Venue: RDDC at Svanemøllen Garrison, Room: Hercules, Building 38)

Time	What	Remarks
0830 - 0850	Registration & Admin	No conference fee
0850 - 0900	Admin, Program & Welcome
0900 - 0910	Group photo
0910 - 1115	Participants build relationship through a design informed transformative strategic game	Including 30 min debrief
1115 - 1200	Lunch	Hosted (TBC)
1200 - 1245	Session 1	Explore and share how European defence forces consider design thinking, how they are working with it, and what future paths they see for design thinking and practice in a national, European and international setting.
1245 - 1255	Break

1255 - 1340	Session 2	To explore desires, relevance, and possibilities of engaging in collaborative projects such as exchange/visiting scholars and practitioners, PME, experiments, research, and development projects.
1340 - 1350	Break
1350 - 1435	Session 3	Is there an interest to develop the European military design network/ community? If so, how can we do, and what will we do?
1435 - 1445	Break
1445 - 1530	Share reflections and findings and talk about way ahead	Symposium output: Article(s), blog post(s), Memo?