Call for Papers
Security and Defence Quarterly

ISSN: 2300-8741

We are preparing a special issue of the journal Security and Defence Quarterly related to the ISMS Conference to be held in Warsaw, Poland, 18-19 October 2018.

<http://www.isofms.org/pagina/isms-conference-2018.html>

The main objective of the conference is to promote the debate on the "Military Sciences and Future Security Challenges".

This special issue will be based on contributions presented at the Conference and consist of a selection of substantially extended papers related to security and defence issues.

All interested researchers are invited to contribute to this special issue. Submissions of contributions not presented at the Conference are also welcome.

Please see the Author Instructions on our website

<https://securityanddefence.pl/resources/html/cms/FORAUTHORSINFO>

The deadline for submission is June 4, 2018.

The papers will be subject to review and the volume will be available at the Conference.
